

74th Annual MPSGS Exhibition

Wednesday, 28 November 2007

Rebecca and Bonnie Latham were recently awarded at the 74th Annual Exhibiton of the Miniature Painters, Sculptors, & Gravers Society of Washington, DC (MPSGS) www.mpsgs.org.

Rebecca was awarded the "Manny Sullivan Award for Excellence - Second in show" (an award that she repeated from last year's exhibition), First place in "Animals and Birds", and first place in "Watermedia". Her sister, Bonnie, entered her first painting in the exhibition this year which was awarded an Honorable Mention in "Animals and Birds".

The exhibit of 699 miniature works of art will run Nov. 19 - Dec. 29, 2007 at the Strathmore Mansion (in North Bethesda, MD). This year's exhibition represents artists from 38 US states and 12 foreign countries.

A slideshow of the events as well as Rebecca's initial post about the event can be found on Rebecca's blog .

